

APPENDIX 6: Recreation Sites and Trails With Objectives Located Within Wood River Forest Inc. Forest Development Units

Project No.	Project Name	Type	Cleared (yr/m/d)	Estab. (yr/m/d)	Dist.	Map (NTS)	Size (ha)	Length (km.)	GPS (Plot)	Lands (File)	Parks (File)	Arch. Site	Objectives ¹	FDU
2479	Athabasca Pass Trail	Trail	93/01/13	97/01/02	DCO	83D08	276	13.8		335762			98/01/30. The objective is to manage the Athabasca Pass recreation trail for a semi primitive non motorized recreation experience. The trail will be managed and maintained as a heritage trail and the adjacent natural vegetation conserved. Opportunities for hiking are available, no motorized use permitted.	Upper Wood
5715	Wood River Trail	Trail	92/06/16	96/12/16	DCO	83D08 83C05	70	6.2					98/01/30. The objective is to manage the Wood River recreation trail for a semi primitive non motorized recreation experience. The trail will be maintained and adjacent vegetation conserved. Opportunities for hiking are available, no mechanized uses permitted	Upper Wood
	Jeffrey recreation site

¹For the purpose of this FSP the Crowns objectives are shown for information purposes. Wood River Forest Inc. obligations are limited to the results and strategies as stated in Table 12.